MEDIA ADVISORY

Citrus County – Citrus County Supervisor of Elections Susan Gill is announcing normal operations for the elections office will be suspended and offices will be closed to the public beginning at 5 p.m. today until further notice, in response to the coronavirus pandemic.

“We’re taking these measures because we believe it’s critically important to do our part to address this urgent public health issue,” said Susan Gill, Citrus County Supervisor of Elections. “At the same time, we are committed to addressing the needs of our candidates, voters and the public remotely – through our website, email, phone — and by appointment when necessary.”

Citrus County residents can register to vote, update their voter registration information or sign up for Vote By Mail online at www.votecitrus.com, by email at vote@votecitrus.com or calling (352) 564-7120. A mail drop box is available to the left of the front door.

Candidates for office can contact candidate services at vote@votecitrus.com or call (352) 564-7111.

Presidential Preference Primary voters who need to cure Vote By Mail or provisional ballot signature discrepancies have until 5 p.m. March 19th to do so. Voters are encouraged to submit the required signature cure affidavit and identification electronically by email (vote@votecitrus.com) or fax (352-564-7121), if possible. Staff will be available at the Election’s Office @ 1500 N. Meadowcrest Ave. Crystal River, FL 34429 on March 18th and March 19th to receive the documentation, if mailed or delivered in person. Provisional ballot voters should visit the Provisional Ballot Status page on votecitrus.com for more information and to check on the status of that ballot. Vote By Mail voters can visit the Vote By Mail page of the website to check the status of their ballot.

The office will be open to accommodate the public meetings required to complete the 2020 Presidential Preference Primary. The meetings will be held at the Supervisor of Elections 1500 N. Meadowcrest Blvd. Crystal River, FL 34429.
